

AVIDA Motorhomes
& Caravans

Join Us as a Camper Van Assembler!

Our vision is to create the vehicle that fulfills our customer's dream lifestyle.

Avida is Australia's largest motorhome manufacturer. We have been manufacturing quality Recreational Vehicles for over 55 years. Our manufacturing facility is located at Emu Plains, in Western Sydney. We have a dealer sales network throughout Australia and New Zealand.

We're ramping up our campervan production!

We don't only build high quality motorhomes, but also campervans. Demand for our vehicles is hot, so we need passionate, energetic and motivated individuals to help us meet our customers' dream lifestyles.

What does a Campervan Assembler do?

They work collaboratively with a small team to assemble the various components and systems, ensuring that each campervan meets a high standard of quality work, achieved on time, consistently and efficiently.

They use hand and power tools, interpret technical drawings and assembly instructions, focus on safety, and look for areas of continuous improvement.

This is an exciting time in our business as we live our Values - "We Care, We Listen, We Learn, We Act", continue to improve our LEAN practices, and work towards World Class Manufacturing.
